Dear [REDACTED] s. 40(1)

Re: Your request for access to information under Part II of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act, 2015 (File #: PB/951/2019)

On December 13, 2019, Nalcor Energy received your request for access to the following records/information:

The Muskrat Falls DG3 CPW was $8.4 billion. Please provide the impact of using higher transmission losses, up to 10%, on the Muskrat Falls DG3 CPW.

Reference: PB/912/2018

CIMFP Exhibit P-00014 Page 40 Grant Thornton

Transmission losses – NSUARB utilized transmission losses of 9.2%. This was higher than the 10 transmission losses of 5.15% used in Nalcor's CPW analysis. Based on our analysis, 5.15% was 11 considered acceptable; however, the impact of using higher transmission losses up to 10% would 12 have resulted in a possible increase to the CPW of the Interconnected Island Option; 1/ MF DG3 CPW was $8.4B - provide the impact on MF DG3 CPW of using higher transmission losses up to 10%

Please note that Nalcor currently has no records that are specifically responsive to your request, however, the link below contains information regarding the 2018 loss methodology that you may find helpful (please see Schedule 3 – Appendix A).

Access or correction complaint

42. (1) A person who makes a request under this Act for access to a record or for correction of personal information may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting a decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request.

(2) A complaint under subsection (1) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16(2).

(3) A third party informed under section 19 of a decision of the head of a public body to grant access to a record or part of a record in response to a request may file a complaint with the commissioner respecting that decision.

(4) A complaint under subsection (3) shall be filed in writing not later than 15 business days after the third party is informed of the decision of the head of the public body.

(5) The commissioner may allow a longer time period for the filing of a complaint under this section.

(6) A person or third party who has appealed directly to the Trial Division under subsection 52(1) or 53(1) shall not file a complaint with the commissioner.

(7) The commissioner shall refuse to investigate a complaint where an appeal has been commenced in the Trial Division.

(8) A complaint shall not be filed under this section with respect to

(a) a request that is disregarded under section 21;

(b) a decision respecting an extension of time under section 23;

(c) a variation of a procedure under section 24; or

(d) an estimate of costs or a decision not to waive a cost under section 26.

(9) The commissioner shall provide a copy of the complaint to the head of the public body concerned.

Direct appeal to Trial Division by an applicant

52. (1) Where an applicant has made a request to a public body for access to a record or correction of personal information and has not filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42, the applicant may appeal the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request directly to the Trial Division.

(2) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (1) not later than 15 business days

(a) after the applicant is notified of the decision of the head of the public body, or the date of the act or failure to act; or

(b) after the date the head of the public body is considered to have refused the request under subsection 16(2).

(3) Where an applicant has filed a complaint with the commissioner under section 42 and the commissioner has refused to investigate the complaint, the applicant may commence an appeal in the Trial Division of the decision, act or failure to act of the head of the public body that relates to the request for access to a record or for correction of personal information.

(4) An appeal shall be commenced under subsection (3) not later than 15 business days after the applicant is notified of the commissioner's refusal under subsection 45(2).
